RE: Public Hearing on Management of Bluenose East Zekwé (Barren-Ground Caribou)

Dear All:

Thank you for registering as a party for the Public Hearing on Management of Bluenose East Zekwé (Barren-Ground Caribou).

The following groups and individuals registered, and have been confirmed by the Board, as parties in the hearing:

1. Délıne Zehdzo Got'ine, Land Corporation and First Nation (joint application for party status)
2. Tulıt'a Renewable Resources Council
3. Tulıt'a Dene Band
4. Norman Wells Renewable Resources Council
5. Fort Good Hope Zehdzo Got'ine
6. K'asho Got'ine Community Council
7. Colville Lake Renewable Resources Council
8. Ayoni Keh Land Corporation
9. Bedzi Ahda First Nation
10. Irene Kodakin (resident of Délıne)
11. NWT Environment and Natural Resources

The Board asks that, where multiple organizations from the same community have registered as parties, these organizations coordinate in order to present their evidence and questions as one panel of speakers / witnesses from that community.

The Board has the following funding available for participation in the hearing:

- Travel costs, honoraria, per diems, and billet costs for 3 (three) Zehdzo Got'ine / Renewable Resources Council members or their chosen representatives from each community.

The Board would like to remind all registered parties of the following timelines:

- Feb 5 Parties' Deadline to Send Information Requests to ENR and Délıne
- Feb 12 ENR and Délıne Deadline to Respond to Information Requests

- Feb 17-18 Technical Sessions for Experts (if Required)
- Feb 19 Pre Hearing Telephone Conference for Parties
- Feb 26 Parties' Deadline to Submit Written (or Video) Presentations for the Hearing
- Mar 1-3 SRRB Public Hearing in Deline
- Mar 15-17 SRRB Attends WRRB Public Hearing in Behchoko
- Mar 29 Parties' Deadline to Submit Final Written Arguments
- May 16 SRRB Decision

In addition, the Board will hold a Pre Hearing Workshop in each of the five Sahtú communities. Board staff will coordinate and facilitate these workshops: Joe Hanlon in Délı̨ne, Tulít'a, and Norman Wells; Daniel T'Seleie in Fort Good Hope and Colville Lake. Board staff will be in touch with each ʔehdzo Got'ı̨ne / Renewable Resources Council to schedule these workshops.

All parties as well as the general public will be invited to attend their community's workshop. For each workshop, the Board has received funding for full-day honoraria for 7 (seven) ʔehdzo Got'ı̨ne / Renewable Resources Council members or their representatives and a full-day consultant fee for 1 (one) interpreter, as well as funding for a meeting space and snacks for participants.

For more information or to provide comments about the Hearing proceedings, please contact me by phone, fax, or email at:
